

GREENLANE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

YOUTH & FAMILIES WORKER

Greenlane Presbyterian Church is seeking a Youth worker to lead our church's youth ministry program, serving our intermediate and high school age young people.

The youth leader will strive to create a welcoming and energetic ministry environment, develop strong relationships with youth, and have a passion to see the next generation find and follow Jesus. You will build on our existing Friday night and Sunday morning programs to create a dynamic and growing youth ministry. The role is envisaged to be between 10 and 20 hours per week (to be negotiated with the successful applicant). There is significant potential for this role to expand to include our children's ministry in time. This will be discussed with applicants.

VISION FOR GPC'S YOUTH AND FAMILIES MINISTRY

Greenlane Presbyterian Church is a family centred community with a small but vibrant well-established youth and children's ministry. We have a strong leadership team that is committed to investing in our youth ministry and its leadership. There is potential for this role to fit as an internship or be put towards ministry training hours, and GPC will work with you to provide the support or mentoring needed.

Our vision for this role is as follows.

- To help our young people find and follow Jesus
- See our young people grow in their faith, gifting and confidence
- Multi-generational worship services with young people actively involved in the life of our community
- A commitment to invest in our key young people through strong leadership programs
- Effective outreach into our wider community, with opportunities for young people to invite friends
- Build strong relationships with families
